Subj: MATERIAL INSPECTION OF SERVICE CRAFT

Ref: (a) OPNAVINST 4780.6D

(b) Service Craft and Boat Accounting Report (SABAR)
(Current Year)

(R)

(c) PEOEXWINST 4780.1

(A)

1. Purpose. To provide direction for an orderly system of scheduling and conducting material inspections of service craft.

2. Cancellation. CNETINST 4780.2B

3. Objective. Material inspections are conducted to provide the Chief of Naval Operations, cognizant systems commands, type commanders, support commanders, and appropriate functional commanders with information regarding the operational and material readiness status of service craft. The results of the Service Craft Material Inspection may also be used to provide cost planning information for service craft overhauls.

4. Scope. Reference (a) assigns the Chief of Naval Education and Training (CNET) responsibility to conduct Service Craft Material Inspections for Navy and Naval Reserve Activities possessing service craft in Florida (Gulf Coast), Alabama, and Mississippi. An inventory of applicable service craft is contained in reference (b).

5. Discussion. Service craft require a material inspection at least 12 months prior to scheduled overhaul in accordance with reference (a). The inspection will be conducted by a Service Craft Material Inspection Board appointed by CNET to cover the geographic area defined in paragraph 4. The board members will be appointed from CNET staff, Naval Education and Training Professional Development and Technology Center (NETPDTC), and service craft custodian activities.

6. Action

a. CNET

(1) CNET (OS41) is designated as the Service Craft Material Inspection Board Coordinator.

(R)

(2) Solicit names of candidates for Senior Inspector and five inspection board members. The selection of board members should come from activities stated in paragraph 4.

(D)

(3) During the fourth quarter of the fiscal year, publish a Service Craft Material Inspection Board schedule for the subsequent fiscal year. The schedule should include the names of the board members performing the inspections, as well as other requirements in reference (a).

(4) Provide travel funding to the inspection board Senior Inspector and inspection board members to conduct the required inspections for the fiscal year.

b. Senior Inspector

R) (1) Perform the required service craft material inspections using reference (c), enclosure (6). Authority to deviate from this guide is granted where deemed appropriate by the Senior Inspector.

R) (2) Prepare and distribute the inspection report as dictated by reference (c), enclosure (6), with a copy to CNET (OS41).

c. User/Custodian Activities

(1) Provide fiscal year inspection requirements to the CNET Board Coordinator.

(2) Respond to CNET solicitation for Service Craft Material Inspection Board members.

(3) Inform CNET Board Coordinator of any change to the regular overhaul and docking schedules that may affect the inspection schedule.

(4) Budget for the travel requirements that may result from participation in the Service Craft Material Inspection Board.

(5) Provide underway inspection time to the Board when appropriate and deemed necessary by the Senior Inspector.

7. Reports. The reports required by this directive are exempt from reports control by SECNAVINST 5214.2B. They shall be forwarded to Commander, Naval Sea Systems Command via the chain of command, with copy to the activity.
